

Born and raised in Biggar, now living in Yorkton, Marc Holt has been involved with OSAC for half of his life and is excited to be running for a Director position on the board. Marc began attending Showcase as a youth delegate with the Biggar & District Arts Council. In 2007, at the age of 17, he became a full board member with the Biggar & District Arts Council and remained on the board for 10 years, including 1 year as Vice President. After leaving this board, Marc would spend 1 year with the Warman Arts Council. Having just recently moved to Yorkton, he is brand new to the Yorkton Arts Council, and is looking forward to working with them.

The arts have been Marc's life, having taken part in music, dance, and musical theatre as a kid. He chose to dedicate his life to music and graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor of Arts in Music in 2014 and now works as a professional musician and music teacher. The highlight of Marc's career has been performing 6 consecutive years at the Sasktel Saskatchewan Jazz Festival with his band, the Marc Holt Quintet.

Having been involved with OSAC for so many years already, it's an organization that means a great deal to Marc and he's grateful for the opportunity to get further involved.
